

Heather Wrenn is the Executive Director/CEO of the NC Chiropractic Association which represents over 2000 chiropractors and staff in North Carolina. Heather attended East Carolina University and received a BSBA in Marketing as well as a certificate in Business & Technical Communication. She has received her Certified Association Executive, CAE, designation and is an active member of ChiroCongress. Heather has served for multiple years on the Association Executives of North Carolina board and is currently the President. She is married to Matthew Wrenn and the proud mother of three wonderful girls.