

Rebecca A. Shigley, CIC, TRA, FLMI, AIE, AIRC, ACS, CICS

Rebecca has broad insurance industry experience spanning thirty years that includes insurance company manager, sales agent, agency owner, insurance regulator, and industry association executive. Rebecca is currently the Chief Operating Officer at the Independent Insurance Agents Association of North Carolina (IIANC). She is responsible for the oversight of the Member Experience Team which focuses on developing and providing professional services that benefit association members including insurance programs, membership, professional development, and consulting services.